

21st March 2023

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION TO SCHEDULE OF APPLICATIONS

1. 22/1322/FH Folkestone Harbour, Pedestrian Area, The Stade
(Pages 9-32) Folkestone, CT20 1QH

Temporary Change of Use of Land for the Stationing of an Ice Cream Van for a three year period from 1st of March to the 30th of September each year, between 2023 and 2026..

Roy Gill, local resident, to speak against application

Edward Giddins, member of the public, to speak in support of application

Cllr Mary Lawes, ward member, to speak against application.

Naomi Ledsham, to speak on behalf of the applicant in support of application

2. 22/0100/FH (planning application) & 22/0147/FH (Listed Building Consent)
(Page 33 – 64) INGLES YARD, JOINTON ROAD, FOLKESTONE

22/0100/FH – Demolition and part retention of curtilage listed building comprising a former cart store and grain store (retaining staddle stones, steps & cladding materials) and replacement with new veterinary surgery comprising replica grain store (utilising existing staddle stones, steps & cladding material).

Nicholas Hunt, local resident, to speak against application

22/0147/FH – Listed Building Consent for the demolition and part retention of curtilage listed building comprising former cart store and grain store (retaining staddle stones, steps & cladding materials) and replacement with new veterinary surgery comprising replica grain store (utilising existing staddle stones, steps & cladding materials).

Mark Hourahane, local resident, to speak against application

-
1. 22/1322/FH Folkestone Harbour, Pedestrian Area, The Stade
(Pages 9-32) Folkestone, CT20 1QH

2 further representations against on similar grounds as those summarised in the officer's report and that a pedestrian barrier exacerbates the issue

1 further representation in support

Further information from the applicant's agent about providing pedestrian barriers and a directional sign for queuing, in front of the vintage ice cream van and within the red line boundary, through a planning condition.

This page is intentionally left blank