

Acknowledgements.

I would like to thank the staff at the Romney Marsh Countryside Project for their help and support in initiating and completing this report, especially Owen Leyshon for the great amount of time and knowledge he has contributed.

I would also like to thank the Romney Hythe and Dymchurch Railway for providing me with information regarding their visitor numbers.

Finally I would like to thank the Dungeness estate for allowing me to complete the survey on their land.